

The Natural Forms Project – Year 10, Autumn and Spring Terms

This marks the start of students' coursework. Students will continue to develop their refinement of techniques and they will be experimenting with materials in order to present a range of studies.

Students will be developing skills in the following areas:

- Tonal
- Photography
- Pen/mark making
- Painting
- Printmaking
- Coloured pencils and watercolour
- Researching the work of ceramic artists
- Designing and creating a ceramic vessel as part of a two-day workshop with artist Amanda silk

Manmade structures – Year 10 Summer Term Term and Year 11 Autumn Term

Students will continue to develop their refinement of techniques and they will be experimenting with materials in order to present a range of studies.

Students will be developing skills in the following areas:

- Tonal
- Photography
- Pen/mark making
- Painting
- Printmaking
- Coloured pencils and watercolour
- Researching the work of artists
- Designing and creating a final painting or mixed media piece

