FICTIONJF = junior fiction*AF = adult fiction*Malorie BLACKMAN*Pig heart boy*JF

Cameron Kelsey has only a few months to live, and is no longer able to play sport, swim or live a normal life in any way. With no suitable human heart donor available, he agrees to try the revolutionary new process and is given a new heart, from a pig.

Theresa BRESLINRemembrance*JF

1915 - Scotland. A group of teenagers meet for a picnic, but all too soon the horror of what is to be known as The Great War engulfs them, their friends and the whole village. From the horror of the trenches, to the devastating reality seen daily by those nursing the wounded, they struggle to survive.

Julie HEARNThe Merrybegot*JF

In the seventeenth century a Merrybegot was a child conceived on May morning and believed to have powers of witchcraft. Nell is such, and is learning the skills of herbal cures and midwifery from her grandmother. Grace, the eldest daughter of a strict puritan minister, has fallen pregnant. To disguise her condition she pretends to be possessed, implying that Nell has bewitched her. Grace's father calls in the Witchfinder General with horrifying consequences.

Mary HOOPERAt the Sign of the Sugared Plum JF

Through Hannah's eyes, Mary Hooper brilliantly recreates the smells, sounds and sights of seventeenth century London life. Hannah's excitement at coming to the big city is vividly evoked as is the growing terror of a seemingly unstoppable plague that takes hold of the city, street by street, house by house.

Mary HOOPERNewes from the dead*JF

In 1650 Anne Green, a young servant girl, gave birth prematurely to an illegitimate child. The baby died and Anne was falsely accused of infanticide. In front of a large crowd she was hanged and then carried to the College of Physicians to be dissected for medical science. As Anne's corpse lay on the table and the doctors assembled, a strange rattle was heard in her throat - could she still be alive?

Elizabeth LAIRDCrusade*JF

This story is about two boys, two faiths, and one unholy war. When Adam's mother dies unconfessed, he pledges to save her soul with dust from the Holy Land. Employed as a dog-boy for the local knight, Adam grabs the chance to join the Crusade to reclaim Jerusalem. Salim, a merchant's son, is leading an uneventful life in the port of Acre - until news arrives that a Crusader attack is imminent. To keep Salim safe, his father buys him an apprenticeship with an esteemed, travelling doctor. But Salim's employment leads him to the heart of Sultan Saladin's camp.

Sally NICHOLLS All fall down JF

When Isabel's Yorkshire village is devastated by the Black Death, it seems that the world is ending in horror and fear. However, for the survivors of the terrible plague, a new and freer society will rise from the destruction of the feudal system that enslaved the family.

Kenneth OPPEL This dark endeavour JF

Victor Frankenstein, his twin brother Konrad and their beautiful cousin Elizabeth lead a privileged life, taught at home and spending their spare time fencing and horseback riding. They have explored all the passageways and secret rooms of the Frankenstein chateau except one. The Dark Library contains ancient tomes filled with forbidden knowledge. When Konrad becomes deathly ill, Victor knows he must find the book that contains the recipe for the legendary Elixir of Life. His success depends on how far he is willing to push the boundaries of nature, science, and love - and how much he is willing to sacrifice.

Linda NEWBERY Some other war JF

Life changes completely for twins Alice and Jack when the First World War breaks out. Jack leaves the stables to fight and Alice becomes a nurse.

Malcolm ROSE Clone JF

Jordan Finch's father is a top scientist in the field of human cloning. However, Jordan is concerned about his father's crusade to clone a human being because he has seen the deformities and early deaths of cloned monkeys.

Malcolm ROSE Kiss of Death JF

On a school trip to the plague village of Eyam in Derbyshire, Seth is moved by the story of how villagers sacrificed their lives to the Black Death. Kim and Wes are more interested in the money at the bottom of the well. When they take the coins, they also disturb the past. As the consequences of their theft unfurl, Seth is forced to wonder if Eyam's plague-ridden past has resurfaced to seek revenge.

Mary SHELLEY Frankenstein AF

A young student of natural philosophy learns the secret of imparting life to a creature constructed from relics of the dead, with horrific consequences. Frankenstein confronts some of the most feared consequences of evolution, such as degeneracy, hereditary disease, and mankind's status as a species of animal.

Jill Paton WALSH A Parcel of Patterns JF

A fictional account of the true story of the villagers of Eyam in Derbyshire, who attempted to stop the spread of the plague by cutting themselves off from the world.
