Sources Booklet

Source A for use in answering Question 01

Sources B and C for use in answering Question 02

Source A

An American cartoon published in May 1970, a few days after the events at Kent State University. The National Guard soldier on the left is speaking to the figure on the right who represents America.

‘They were coming at us with sticks and stones. What else could we do?’

Source B

Adapted from a confidential message sent by Joseph Stalin, the leader of the USSR, to General Shtykov in January 1950.

Shtykov was the main Soviet expert in Korean affairs. He became the first Soviet ambassador to North Korea in 1948 and shared Kim Il Sung's wish to unify Korea.

I understand that Comrade Kim Il Sung's plans for South Korea will need more resources. I am ready to help him with this. Tell Comrade Kim that I will send ammunition and other military equipment. I will also provide technical assistance and the help of Soviet specialists if he needs them.

Source C

A poster published in 1950 by the US Government after the UN agreement regarding Korea.
