SHOULD MY CHILD STUDY DRAMA?

The WJEC Eduqas GCSE in drama is an exciting, inspiring and practical course. The specification promotes involvement in and enjoyment of drama, as performers and/or designers. Additionally it provides opportunities to attend live theatre performances and to develop skills as informed and thoughtful audience members.

What will my child gain from drama?

Skills-

Students develop excellent communication skills; verbal, non-verbal and written.

Communication skills are the most important and sought after skill that employers look for in candidates!

Understanding-

Students gain an understanding of human behaviour and psychology, to better understand the environmental, cultural, and societal perspectives in both design and performance.

Creative Thinking & Problem solving-

Creative thinking and advanced problem solving techniques are used as a foundation in any drama training.

Timekeeping –

All production tasks must be completed in a professional and timely manner. There is no option to delay completion as opening night never goes away.

Motivation & Commitment-

Theatre productions and classes demand commitment and motivation. Theatre teaches students that success comes to those who are highly committed to the task at hand and who are willing to work together. These are highly sought after and transferable qualities useful in all careers.

Adaptability & Flexibility –

To be successful students must be willing to try new ideas, accept new challenges, and have the ability to adapt to constantly changing situations and conditions. Not only in the study of multiple areas of specialty but due to the nature of live performance, one must be ready for anything that might require an immediate reaction and solution.

Dedication-

Quite possibly the single most important aspect of working in the Theatre. Drama students discover that committing oneself to a given task is deeply rewarding.

Employers respect workers who have learned the value of dedication.

Self-confidence –

Drama allows you and teaches you to develop confidence in yourself. Your accomplishments in theatre show you that you can handle a variety of jobs, pressures, difficulties and responsibilities. You will develop a "Yes, I can!" attitude. Any employer in any field will treasure that personality trait.

Where will drama take my child?

When planning for further and higher education, the GCSE drama course provides a perfect springboard to study A-Level Drama and BTEC Performing Art. These qualifications will enable your child to progress to Drama School or University to continue their study.
