

September 2024

Dear parent/carers

Over the course of the next term, your child will be making applications to sixth form colleges and further education centres. Each further education centre has its own application process.

Please see below for a list of forthcoming open evenings for local sixth form colleges and further education centres. These events provide an excellent opportunity for both you and your child to explore the available options for their next steps in education.

Should your child need any additional support during this time, either their form tutor or myself will be available to assist with any questions or concerns they may have.

Not all places of education have confirmed open dates, so please find attached a document outlining all the options available to your child as they move forward with their education.

Thank you for your continued support.

Yours sincerely
